

The Anthony Baines Memorial Prize 2002

The Galpin Society confers the fourth Anthony Baines Memorial Prize on

Beryl Kenyon de Pascual

for her outstanding and important contribution to the Galpin Society Journal over many years. She has published a record number of articles relating, in particular, to historic musical instruments of Spain. Beryl Kenyon de Pascual was born and brought up in England and studied at the University of London. She married Conrado de Pascual, a distinguished chemist, and they have lived in Madrid for most of their married life. Beryl is recognised as having brought historic Spanish musical instruments to the notice of scholars interested in this field internationally.
