

The Anthony Baines Memorial Prize 2009

The Galpin Society confers the eleventh Anthony Baines Memorial Prize on

Hugh Cheape

distinguished organologist, curator and author. Dr Cheape's principal career has been as a Curator of the National Museums of Scotland, specialising in Scottish Material Culture, a subject on which he has written extensively. In addition he has established himself as the leading authority on all types of Scottish bagpipes and has been responsible for building up the National Museum's large collection of historic bagpipes. He has used this collection to demonstrate the history of the instruments concerned, culminating in the recent publication of the authoritative work on the subject.
